

Aanjigaabawig Odaminowin

Object of the Game:

Learn clothing vocabulary and a simple Anishinaabemowin phrase.

How to Play:

All players except for one stand in a circle. The player left without a spot stands in the middle and becomes the caller. The caller says "Aanjigaabawig giishpin _____ gagishkaman", which translates to "Change standing positions if you are wearing _____". Fill in the blank with a clothing word provided. The players wearing that piece of clothing would have to switch standing positions with someone else, while the ones who are not wearing the clothing item remain in their same standing position. The player left without a spot will then become the caller and say the phrase with a different clothing word. Continue on until everyone has had a turn to say the phrase.
